

Table of contents

Editorial Note	7
PAPERS
From Agropolis to Ecopolis, what changed? Geographical Approaches to Food Issues Ana Firmino	9
Index-based Insurance - Technical Improvements and Socio-economic Considerations. The Kenya Case Federica Di Marcantonio	31
Food, Feed and Fuel. Geography of productions and market consequence Vittorio Amato	49
Analysis of the correlations between child malnutrition and food insecurity through Food Consumption Score and in a rural context in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Jacopo Segnini, Alain Georges Tchamba	61
DOCUMENTS
1st GEOPROGRESS GLOBAL FORUM	75
The GGF initiative	79
Welcome addresses Gianmaria Ajani, Rector of the University of Turin, Piero Fassino, Mayor of the City of Turin, Sergio Chiamparino, President of the Piedmont Region,
The "goal zero hunger", a must, Francesco Adamo (Geoprogress, Onlus)	87
Visions, Actions and Proposals by members of various bodies.	99
Contribution of a Member of the European Parliament, Brando Benifei	101
Agenda 2030: the role of rural transformation. Some key areas of focus to drive change, Adolfo Brizzi, IFAD.	103
Ten thousand gardens in Africa to cultivate the future, Valentina Meraviglia, Slow Food	107
MAC BUN: another way is possible, Margherita Perino, Mac Bun	123